

Top Designers Tell Us What Fabric They Are Looking Forward to Using This Summer

Snap a photo and use the hashtag #HCandGDesignerCorner to tell us what fabric you are most looking forward to using in your next design project!

Compiled by Kelly Velocci

“I’m excited to make drapery panels using Fortuny’s Camo Isole. It’s an interpretation of traditional camouflage, created from photographs of water and islands, instead of foliage.”

—Wesley Moon, interior designer